No need to thank me.

I should be available tomorrow after about 10:30 MST, so call whenever (b)(6) privacy

I participated in a call earlier this week with Ayn and Martin, which was much more positive (in attitude from all parties, at least) than we had expected. We (EPA) are looking to delay the joint staff-level conversation from Monday of next week to later in the week, which is good. I'll give you more details when we talk.

Greetings from (b)(6) privacy

I cannot see any reason to cancel your trip to DC. They are important meetings and it is important that you be there. And Judy won't let anything slip by her.

My greatest source of anxiety is the machinations I am confident certain parties are engaged in on Pavillion. Again, maybe you can ferret out something when you are in the den of the beast. And try to backstop Ayn where you can.

As for the congressional briefing Sandy mentioned today, maybe we can talk about it tomorrow or over the weekend (b)(6) privacy

I think that's it for the moment. Thanks again for everything.
Jim
